

Here's what happens...

Elijah challenges the prophets of the idol Baal to a duel. Each will build an altar and ask their god to light the sacrifice on fire. The prophets of Baal dance and cry out, but their idol doesn't respond. Elijah douses his altar with water and still God shows his mighty power by licking up the water with flames.

Bible Point:

God is all-powerful.

"No power in the sky above or in the earth below—indeed, nothing in all creation will ever be able to separate us from the love of God that is revealed in Christ Jesus our Lord" (Romans 8:39).

Family Together Time

- Turn off all the lights in the house, and sit together in the darkness at night. Talk about things that make you feel powerless. Or use this as a dinner table conversation. What is happening at school, in the world now that seems overwhelming?
- Then run around turning on all the lights—maybe even some loud music, too—and pray loudly for God to show you his power when you feel powerless.
- Memorize this verse:

Check out this funny video of today's story:

<https://vimeo.com/showcase/6827563/video/415786407>

Do the actions and sing along to this encouraging song:

<https://vimeo.com/showcase/6827563/video/394499092>

My God is powerful
He stands invincible
I will hold on to Him, I will hold on to Him
Through God, I will overcome
He's the rock that will never move.
I will hold on to Him, I will hold on to Him

Talk About This...

- Describe God like he's a superhero.